Other Ways to Give

Lawrence Public Library Foundation

The Lawrence Public Library Foundation is an independent, not-for-profit 501c3 corporation that receives and administers gifts, bequests, endowments and other tax-deductible contributions for the continued growth and improvement of the library. The Foundation seeks to build strong public-private partnerships with individuals, businesses, foundations and community organizations that share our vision of providing the highest quality public library for Lawrence. An investment in the Lawrence Public Library Foundation serves thousands of citizens from all walks of life. For more information, please contact Kathleen Morgan, Development Director, 843-3833, ext. 131, or email kmorgan@lawrence.lib.ks.us.

Friends of the Lawrence Public Library

The Friends of the Lawrence Public Library is a group of like-minded individuals who believe in the importance of a strong community library. The Friends organization is committed to achieving this goal by raising funds through book sales and memberships, participating in volunteer opportunities and by advocating for the library. By joining the Friends organization, you can guarantee that this essential support of the Lawrence Public Library continues. For more information, please contact Leslie O'Neil, Friends Coordinator, 843-3833, ext. 223, or email loneil@lawrence.lib.ks.us.
