AUTHOR—RACHEL IGNOTOFSKY: WOMEN IN SCIENCE

THU | Jan 12 | All ages
7-8:30 PM | Auditorium

Women in Science highlights the contributions of fifty notable women to the fields of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) from the ancient to the modern world, and celebrates the achievements of the intrepid women who have paved the way for the next generation of female engineers, biologists, mathematicians, doctors, astronauts, physicists, and more! Author signing to follow. The Raven will bring books for sale.

FILM—FAST BREAK WITH KEVIN WILLMOTT

MON | Jan 16 | 7-8:30 PM
Auditorium

Willmott's latest documentary tells the story of John McLendon, the first black student at the University of Kansas to earn his degree in physical education and study under Dr. James Naismith. A legendary basketball coach, McLendon was also a pioneer, supreme innovator, teacher, and consummate gentleman who waged a successful fight to break down barriers of racial segregation in college and professional athletics. A discussion with Willmott will follow the screening.

AUTHOR—HARRIET LERNER'S WHY WON'T YOU APOLOGIZE?

THU | Jan 19 | 7-8:30
Auditorium

Dr. Harriet Lerner has been studying apologies for more than two decades. Now she offers compelling stories and solid theory that bring home how much the simple apology matters and what is required for healing when the hurt we've inflicted (or received) is far from simple. Author signing to follow. The Raven will bring books for sale.
