PULITZER PROJECT IN KS: HISTORY & IMPACT OF US PRESIDENTIAL DEBATES

SUN | Oct 16 | 2-3:30 PM
Auditorium

Diana Carlin, 13-year veteran advisor to the Commission on Presidential Debates, presents the history of candidate debate strategies, formats, sponsorship, and viewer learning. Learn how these debates help the electorate use their voice to determine the course of a country. Presented in partnership with the Watkins Museum of History and the Kansas Humanities Council as part of The Pulitzer Project in Kansas: William Allen White and Freedom of Speech project.

POINTS OF VIEW WITH KANSAS PUBLIC RADIO: CONCEALED CARRY

THU | Oct 20 | 7-8:30 PM
Auditorium

KPR News Director, J. Schafer, will moderate a community discussion surrounding Kansas' permit-free, concealed carry law.

We'll look at the the different perspectives surrounding this controversial interpretation of the Second Amendment.

NATHAN HILL AND THE NIX: AUTHOR TALK

MON | Oct 24 | 7:30-9 PM
Auditorium

Meet rising star Nathan Hill whose debut novel just debuted at #5 on the New York Times Bestseller List. Booklist hails The Nix as "engrossing, skewering, and preternaturally timely tale beside the novels of Tom Wolfe, John Irving, Donna Tartt, and Michael Chabon." John Irving, in turn, has called Hill "a maestro."
