GEORGE FRAZIER & THE LAST WILD PLACES OF KANSAS

THU | Sep 14 | 7-8:30 PM
Auditorium

Since the last wild bison found refuge on the back of a nickel, the public image of natural Kansas has progressed from Great American Desert to dust bowl to flyover country that has been landscaped, fenced, and farmed. After three years roaming and documenting the last bastions of prairie, forests, and wetlands, George Frazier explores nature's secret holdouts in the Sunflower State (from University Press of Kansas). The Raven bookstore will sell copies of Frazier's book, and there will be a signing following his talk.
